MASIMO CORPORATION and CERCACOR LABORATORIES, INC.,  Counter-Claimants,  v.  APPLE INC.  Counter-Defendant.

OBJECTIONS TO APPLE INC.'S SUBPOENA TO STEPHEN JENSEN FOR DEPOSITION AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Non-party Stephen Jensen (“Jensen”), Masimo Corporation and Sound United (“Masimo”) hereby object to the Subpoena to Testify at a Deposition of Plaintiff Apple Inc. (“Apple”) as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Jensen and Masimo assert each of the following General Objections to the Subpoena and the Definitions, Topics, and Requests for Production listed therein. In addition to these General Objections, Jensen and Masimo also assert objections to specific Topics and Requests for Production of Documents below. By setting forth such specific objections, Jensen and Masimo do not intend to limit or restrict their General Objections.

1. Jensen and Masimo object to each and every request on the ground that they seek discovery that is not related to any claim or defense in this action.

2. Jensen and Masimo object to the time and location for the deposition set forth in the Notice.

3. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple’s requirement that the deposition continue from day to day until completed, and to the extent that any deposition becomes duplicative or otherwise unduly burdensome in its duration. Any deposition pursuant to this Notice shall not exceed seven hours.

4. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple’s definition of “Masimo” as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover “Masimo Corporation and all of its predecessors (merged, acquired, or otherwise), successors, subsidiaries, parents, sisters, divisions, departments, partnerships, and affiliates thereof, and all officers, directors, principals, agents, employees, attorneys, and other persons acting on its behalf.” To the extent Apple’s definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple’s definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome. Unless noted otherwise, Jensen and Masimo are interpreting “Masimo” as Masimo Corporation.

5. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple’s definition of “Sound United” as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover “Sound United, LLC (a/k/a Masimo Consumer) and all of its predecessors (merged, acquired, or otherwise), successors, subsidiaries, parents, sisters, divisions, departments, partnerships, and affiliates thereof, and all officers, directors, principals, agents, employees, attorneys, and other persons acting on its behalf.” To the extent Apple’s definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple’s definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome. Unless noted otherwise, Jensen and Masimo are interpreting “Sound United” as Sound United, LLC.

6. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple’s definition of “Cercacor” as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover “Cercacor Laboratories Inc. and all of its predecessors (merged, acquired, or otherwise), successors, subsidiaries, parents, sisters, divisions, departments, partnerships, and affiliates thereof, and all officers, directors, principals, agents, employees, attorneys, and other persons acting on its behalf.” To the extent Apple’s definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple’s definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome. Unless noted otherwise, Jensen and Masimo are interpreting “Cercacor” as Cercacor Laboratories Inc.

7. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple’s definition of “Related Publications” as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover “all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents.” To the extent Apple’s definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple's definition as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case.

8. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple's definition of "Inequitable Conduct References" as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover "all references that are the subject of Apple's inequitable conduct allegations in this case." To the extent Apple's definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple's definition as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case.

9. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple's definition of "Medtronic" as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover "Medtronic PLC, Covidien, Nellcor Puritan Bennett Inc., Mallinckrodt Inc., and all of its predecessors (merged, acquired, or otherwise), successors, subsidiaries, parents, sisters, divisions, departments, partnerships, and affiliates thereof, and all officers, directors, principals, agents, employees, attorneys, and other persons acting on its behalf." To the extent Apple's definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple's definition as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case. Unless noted otherwise, Jensen and Masimo are interpreting "Medtronic" as Medtronic PLC, Covidien, Nellcor Puritan Bennett Inc., and Mallinckrodt Inc.

10. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple's definition of "Nellcor Prior Art Products" as vague and ambiguous, particularly to the extent it purports to cover "all pulse oximeter and/or watch products made or sold by Medtronic before September 22, 2020." To the extent Apple's definition is understandable, Jensen and Masimo also object to Apple's definition as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case.

11. Jensen and Masimo object to Apple's definitions of "person" as overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional with the needs of the case, and inconsistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

12. Jensen and Masimo object to each request using the term "relating to," "related to," or "relate to," or other derivations thereof as overbroad, vague, and ambiguous. Jensen and Masimo further object to each use of this term to the extent that it requires subjective judgment and speculation on the part of Jensen and Masimo.

13. Jensen and Masimo object to the Notice and each and every Topic and Request for Production to the extent they fail to comply with or seek to impose any obligations beyond those set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the "Federal Rules"), the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules"), or the Scheduling Order in this case.

14. Jensen and Masimo object to the Requests for Production to the extent they seek information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, common interest privilege, or any other applicable privilege or immunity. The specific objections stated below on the grounds of attorney-client privilege, and/or work product in no way limit the generality of this objection. Nothing contained in these objections should be construed as a waiver of attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, common interest privilege, or any other applicable privilege or immunity.

15. Jensen and Masimo object to the Requests for Production to the extent they seek information or materials of any third-party that is confidential and/or proprietary, protected under a standing protective order, and/or otherwise protected from disclosure.

16. Jensen and Masimo object to the Requests for Production as overly broad and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case, to the extent that any Request for Production seeks information not known or reasonably available to Jensen or outside the possession, custody, and control of Jensen, including requiring to provide or seek information regarding third-parties.

17. Jensen and Masimo object to the Requests for Production as overly broad and not proportional to the discovery needs of the case, to the extent that any Request for Production seeks information that is already in Apple's possession or readily available from another source that is equally available to Apple.

18. Jensen and Masimo object to the Requests for Production to the extent they call for legal conclusions, legal contentions, and/or expert testimony.

19. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for any Topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen and Masimo are not obligated to and will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to Apple's identified topics.

20. To the extent the Subpoena seeks testimony identified in Apple's Subpoena to Knobbe Martens, Jensen, Masimo, and Knobbe Martens object to such testimony on the same grounds as those identified in Knobbe Martens' objections to Apple's Subpoena.

21. Jensen and Masimo make their written objections herein without in any way waiving or intending to waive, but on the contrary, intending to preserve and preserving:

- a. The right to raise objections as to the relevance, materiality, privilege, or admissibility of any information provided or document identified in the noticed deposition, either in this action or in any other proceeding;

- b. The right to object to the use of the above information or documents in this action or in any other proceeding; and
- c. The right to object on any ground at any time to other notices or other discovery requests involving this information or the subject matter thereof.

22. Jensen and Masimo hereby reserve all objections available under the Federal Rules to the use of any videotaped deposition or transcript at trial or hearing.

23. Words and terms used in these objections shall be construed in accordance with their normal meaning and connotations and shall in no way be interpreted as terms of art or statutorily defined terms, and Jensen and Masimo specifically disavow any such meaning or connotation that might be accorded to such terms.

24. These objections are made solely for the purpose of this action. Each objection is subject to all objections as to authenticity, competence, relevance, admissibility, and any other objections that would require the exclusion of any statement contained herein if such statement were made by a witness present and testifying in court. All such objections and grounds are reserved and may be interposed at the time of trial.

25. Any restatement of one or more of these General Objections in a specific objection shall not be construed as a waiver of any other General Objection.

26. Jensen and Masimo reserve the right to object at any deposition(s) to any question asked on the grounds set forth in these General Objections, the specific grounds individually listed for each deposition Topic below, or any ground available to Jensen and Masimo at the time of deposition.

27. Subject to and without waiver of these General Objections, Jensen and Masimo submit the following specific objections.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

All documents referring or relating to the preparation, filing, and/or prosecution of each of the Masimo Asserted Patents, U.S. Patent No. 10,687,745, and the other Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking "[a]ll documents," without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase "Related Masimo Publications." To the extent "Related Masimo Publications" is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as exceeding the obligations imposed by the Federal Rules insofar as it requires Jensen to investigate "all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents." Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous as to the phrase “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2:

All documents relating to Your efforts to comply with the duty to disclose information material to the patentability under 37 C.F.R. § 1.56 during the prosecution of each Masimo Asserted Patent and Related Masimo Publications, including without limitation your determinations relating to what to disclose and not disclose to the Patent Office during these prosecutions.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Related Masimo Publications.” To the extent “Related Masimo Publications” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as exceeding the obligations imposed by the Federal Rules insofar as it requires Jensen to investigate “all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents.” Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrases “determinations relating to what to disclose and not disclose” and “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3:

All documents referring, relating to, or showing Your awareness or involvement in the preparation, filing, and/or prosecution of each of the Masimo Asserted Patents, U.S. Patent No. 10,687,745, and the other Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Related Masimo Publications.” To the extent “Related Masimo Publications” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as exceeding the obligations imposed by the Federal Rules insofar as it requires Jensen to investigate “all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents.” Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous as to the phrase “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object that the term “awareness” is vague, ambiguous, or unintelligible in the context of this request. To the extent “awareness” means knowledge for the purpose of establishing inequitable conduct, Jensen and Masimo object to this request as seeking a legal conclusion. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4:

All documents referring or relating to each Inequitable Conduct Reference, including without limitation all documents referring to, relating to, or showing Your awareness of the Inequitable Conduct References.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Inequitable Conduct Reference.” To the extent “Inequitable Conduct Reference” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as it seeks “all references that are subject of Apple’s inequitable conduct allegations in this case.” Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous as to the phrase “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object that the term “awareness” is vague, ambiguous, or unintelligible in the context of this request. To the extent “awareness” means knowledge of the Inequitable Conduct References for the purpose of establishing inequitable conduct, Jensen and Masimo object to this request as seeking a legal conclusion. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and irrelevant because it is unbounded as to time. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5:

All documents referring or relating to Your involvement in Mallinckrodt, Inc. v. Masimo Corp., No. 2:00cv-06506 (C.D. Cal.); Masimo Corp. v. Mallinckrodt Inc., Nos. 8:01-cv- 00638 & 2:01-cv-07292 (C.D. Cal.); Nellcor Puritan, et al. v. Masimo Corp., Nos. 8:02-cv-01133 & 2:03-cv-00603 (C.D. Cal.), including without limitation all declarations, affidavits, transcripts of testimony, and other submissions provided by or referring to You.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrases “other submissions” and “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 6:

All documents relating to whether any Nellcor Prior Art Products infringe any Masimo, Cercacor, or Sound United Patent, including without limitation all infringement contentions in the following litigations: Mallinckrodt, Inc. v. Masimo Corp., No. 2:00cv-06506 (C.D. Cal.); Masimo Corp. v. Mallinckrodt Inc., Nos. 8:01-cv-00638 & 2:01-cv-07292 (C.D. Cal.); and Nellcor Puritan, et al. v. Masimo Corp., Nos. 8:02-cv-01133 & 2:03-cv-00603 (C.D. Cal.).

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 6:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents relating to whether any Nellcor Prior Art Products infringe any Masimo, Cercacor, or Sound United Patent,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Nellcor Prior Art Products.” To the extent “Nellcor Prior Art Products” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as it seeks “all pulse oximeter and/or watch products made or sold by Medtronic before September 22, 2020.” Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous as to the phrase “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7:

All communications with Masimo, Cercacor, and/or Sound United regarding the Masimo Asserted Patents and Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll communications,” without regard to whether the communication has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Related Masimo Publications.” To the extent “Related Masimo Publications” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as exceeding the obligations imposed by the Federal Rules insofar as it requires Jensen to investigate “all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 8:

All documents referring or relating to any search results, including patentability, validity, prior-art, infringement, or state-of-the-art searches, concerning the Masimo Asserted Patents and Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 8:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking “[a]ll documents” relating to “any search result,” without regard to whether the document has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous with respect to the phrase “Related Masimo Publications.” To the extent the “Related Masimo Publications” is understandable, Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case as exceeding the obligations imposed by the Federal Rules insofar as it requires Jensen to investigate “all patent applications related to the Masimo Asserted Patents and any patents in the same family as any of the Masimo Asserted Patents.” Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as vague and ambiguous as to the phrase “relating to.” Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent it seeks information that is not in Jensen’s possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 9:

All agreements between You and Masimo, Cercacor, and/or Sound United.

OBJECTIONS TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 9:

Jensen and Masimo incorporates by reference their General Objections. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request on the grounds that it seeks information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or immunity. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense and seeks to harass Jensen. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as over broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case in seeking "[a]ll agreements" without regard to whether the agreement has any bearing or relationship to any facts, issues, or allegations in the case.

TOPICS

TOPIC NO. 1:

The preparation, filing and prosecution of each of the Masimo Asserted Patents, U.S. Patent No. 10,687,745, and the other Related Masimo Publications, including without limitation the identity of all individuals involved in these prosecutions.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 1:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 2:

Your efforts to comply with the duty to disclose information material to the patentability under 37 C.F.R. § 1.56 during the prosecution of each Masimo Asserted Patent and Related Masimo Publications, including without limitation Your determinations relating to what to disclose and not disclose to the Patent Office during these prosecutions.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 2:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 3:

Your determinations relating to what to disclose and not disclose to the Patent Office during prosecution of each of the Masimo Asserted Patents and Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 3:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 4:

Any awareness or involvement in the preparation, filing, and/or prosecution of each of the Masimo Asserted Patents, U.S. Patent No. 10,687,745, and the other Related Masimo Publications.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 4:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 5:

Your knowledge and awareness of the Inequitable Conduct References during prosecution of the Masimo Asserted Patents.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 5:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 6:

The reasons why the Nellcor NPB-195, N-395, and OxiMax N-595 were not disclosed to the Patent Office during prosecution of the '223 patent.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 6:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 7:

The reasons why Mendelson IEEE was not disclosed to the Patent Office during prosecution of the '507 patent.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 7:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.

TOPIC NO. 8:

The reasons over 1,000 references were disclosed to the Patent Office during each of the prosecutions of the '743 patent, the '159 patent, and the '911 patent, respectively.

OBJECTIONS TO TOPIC NO. 8:

Jensen and Masimo incorporate their General Objections above as set forth in full herein. Jensen and Masimo object to this request to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, the common interest privilege, and/or any other applicable privilege or protection. Jensen and Masimo also object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case because it seeks information not relevant to any party's claim or defense. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad and unduly burdensome and for failing to describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested and/or being incapable of reasonable ascertainment because it does not sufficiently identify the documents that will be the subject of Respondents' questions. Jensen and Masimo further object to this request as overly broad, unduly burdensome and irrelevant to the extent it seeks testimony relating to documents that Jensen has declined to produce and/or has not produced, including for the reasons set forth in Jensen and Masimo's Specific Objections above. To the extent Apple believes an obligation exists to prepare for this topic, Jensen and Masimo object as the Subpoena does not fall under Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and no such obligation exists. Jensen will not undertake any obligation to prepare to provide testimony in response to this topic.
